

The Céilí (kay-lee) of the Valley Society is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to promoting and perpetuating Celtic heritage and culture in the Willamette Valley primarily through social events that incorporate music and dance.

The Céilí of the Valley offers a variety of activities and opportunities to honor our mission including:

- Promoting dance and music enjoyment through weekly Tuesday evening classes and monthly Céilí Mór (Gaelic for big/great party) held on the second Friday of every month.
- Performing at cultural events & festivals
- Engaging people of all ages and abilities in dance through demonstrations at community venues, assisted living facilities, academic institutions, and historical areas.
- Instituting a St. Patrick's Day Celebration parade in Salem
- Hosting the Samhain Celtic New Year Festival in Salem
- Sponsoring and hosting the Celtic Music Hour on KMUZ 88.5 FM, a Mid-Willamette Valley community radio station, which can be heard world-wide by streaming the show live at kmuz.org
